

Daphne Austin

5013 Countryside Lane · Harvard, IL 60033
(815) 403-8305 · austindaphne7@gmail.com

CERTIFICATION:

Illinois State Teaching License, expected May 2019
Endorsements: Agriculture Education – 6-12th grade

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science, Agriculture Science Education, University of Illinois (UIUC),
Champaign-Urbana, IL, May 2019

RELEVANT TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Student Teacher, Oakwood High School, Fithian, IL. January- March 2019

- Create and design units for three different Agriculture classes: Physical Science Applications in Agriculture (PSAA), Basic Agriculture, and Introduction to Agriculture.
- CASE Curriculum for Environmental Science and Food Science will be used.
- Lessons will be adapted to include the variety of students seen in an Agriculture classroom.
- Plans on utilizing the shop to create hands on lessons for students to be actively involved in learning.

OTHER RELATED EXPERIENCE

University of Illinois Dinning Hall Service, Urbana, IL. August 2017- December 2018

- Supervisor of College Staff during shifts, trained new workers
- Provided clear directions at the beginning of each shift

McHenry County Farm Bureau, Woodstock, IL May 2017 – August 2017

- Worked with Ag in the Classroom, Helped present Dairy Ag in the classroom

Austin Hereford, Hogs, and Hay, Harvard, IL, 2010- present

- Experience agriculture practices raising livestock and putting up hay

Vacation Bible School Teacher, Harvard, IL, Summers 2015 - Present

- Taught children for a week using themed curriculum, created crafts for children to complete at different points through the week